The Credential Committee shall issue Credentials to only those who have complied with General Conference requirements.

11.05 Transfers

When a Credential holder moves to another country, he should apply for a transfer of Credentials.

Ministers transferring from other church organizations shall complete the Organization's Credential application form for our records before receiving Credentials and allow a copy of their former credentials, and if applicable their Ordination Certificate to be made available for our files.

Ordained ministers accepted for transfer from other church organizations shall have temporary recognition for one (1) year before Credential transfer is confirmed.

11.06 Loss of Credentials

Credential Holders having personal debts that they are not seeking to liquidate may lose their Credentials upon a majority vote of the Board.

Any Credential Holder found guilty of adultery, or sexual deviation or other form of immorality shall have his credentials suspended and each case shall be considered on its own merit.

Should a charge be laid against a Credential Holder, the officers of the Corporation shall be under obligation to investigate the charge without delay, and shall have the authority to suspend that person's credentials.

If any Credential Holder shall be charged with holding doctrine contrary to the Articles of Faith of the Corporation, or is charged with wrong practices of a serious nature known on the testimony of at least three (3) witnesses, the case shall be heard by the President, and in either case one other officer. In the case of no adjustment, a committee of five, including the President shall hear the case. This committee may withdraw endorsement until the next General Conference, when the suspended member, if he or she so desires, may appeal for reconsideration of the case.

Credential Holders who in the judgment of the Board are unsuccessful over a period of years may be demoted and have their credentials recalled.

Ministers may decline to officiate at a wedding ceremony which is not in harmony with their personal beliefs and convictions.

No minister may perform any wedding ceremony in which either party has been divorced and the former spouse is still living, except in instances in which, after proper investigation, the minister has determined and is satisfied that the following conditions exist, or where the minister has received an affidavit from the person who has a living former spouse, duly witnessed by two (2) signators, or a notary public or commissioner of oaths, that declares the conditions below have been fulfilled:

1. All reasonable efforts at reconciliation with the former partner have been exhausted; and
2. There has been sexual immorality on the part of a former partner or that partner has remarried; and
3. There is repentance for any personal failures that may have contributed to the breakup of a previous marriage; and
4. A legal divorce has been obtained.

No credential holder shall knowingly invite into his church or community for official public preaching, teaching or evangelism ministries, any person or persons who are divorced and remarried and have a former companion living or who are married to such a person or persons who are under suspension and who have had their credentials withdrawn, or whose moral standards and practices do not harmonize with the Scriptures and reflect a life of holiness as believed among us. Any violation shall result in disciplinary action taken as deemed warranted after a review by the executive committee.

In order to maintain active standing, Ordained Ministers up to their retirement must preach at least twenty-five (25) times a year, unless engaged in Church administrative work, or a member of a Bible College faculty, or those who are furthering their education, or engaged in specialized ministries as defined in Section 11.02 (A). The Board at their discretion are authorized to review the circumstances of any credential holder who is currently engaged in full or part-time secular work, and if in the opinion of the Board there is evidence that the individual is not engaged primarily in Christian ministry, or does not meet the minimum preaching requirement for retention of active standing, the name of such a person would be placed on the Inactive List. After a period of two (2) years the name shall be removed, unless the Credential Holder has had a continuous ministry of fifteen (15) years or more, in which case the person will remain indefinitely on the Inactive List.

A Licensed Minister must preach at least twenty (20) a year in order to retain active standing, unless engaged in Church administrative work, or a member of a Bible College faculty, or engaged in specialized ministries as defined in Section 11.02 (A). Credential Holders whose names appear on the Inactive List shall not have the privilege of General Conference participation, but shall retain all other benefits of the Corporation. Exceptions may be made by the Board in session for persons who have held credentials for thirty (30) years.

Should a Credential Holder fail to renew his credentials by the first (1st) of March the President upon receipt of notification from the Secretary will inform the individual by letter, allowing a thirty (30) day period in which he may apply for renewal. A copy of the letter will be sent to the Secretary. If the credentials are not renewed with the thirty (30) day period the Secretary will notify the President, and the credentials in question will be lapse.

11.07 Discipline

A. The Nature and Purposes of Discipline

Discipline is an exercise of Scriptural authority for which the church is responsible. The aims of discipline are that God may be honored, that the purity and welfare of the ministry may be maintained, and that those under discipline may be brought to repentance and restoration.

Discipline is to be administered for the restoration of the minister, while fully providing for the protection of the spiritual welfare of our local assemblies. It is to be redemptive in nature as well as corrective and is to be exercised as under a dispensation of mercy. The following shall be proceeded with only after all other avenues of Christian counsel and brotherly admonition have been exhausted. For the purposes of this by-law, “he” shall be deemed to include females.

B. Causes of Disciplinary Action

Violation of principles as stated in the General Constitution and the by-laws of the Corporation may give cause for disciplinary action by the Board. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, among such causes for action shall be:

1. Adultery, sexual deviation, any conduct unbecoming to a minister, or indiscretions involving morals;
2. General incompetence in the ministry;
3. A failure or inability to represent our Pentecostal testimony correctly (see the Constitution of the Corporation);
4. A contentious or non-cooperative spirit;
5. An assumption of dictatorial authority over an assembly;
6. An arbitrary rejection of the authority of the Corporation;
7. A declared open change in doctrinal views;
8. A habit of running into debt which brings reproach upon the cause;
9. The officiating of a marriage in violation of our stand on marriage and divorce;
10. Violations of generally accepted ministerial courtesies;
11. Any proven act or conduct which, in the opinion of the Board, after a full investigation of the evidence may be regarded as requiring disciplinary action.

C. Initiative

Authority: Occasions sometimes arise which make it necessary to deal with ministers who, for some reason, seem to have reached the place where, in the opinion of the Board, endorsement can no longer be given.

The Board which has the authority to ordain ministers and to recommend them for credentials also has the right to withdraw its approval and to recommend the withdrawal of credentials (Sections 11.06 and 11.07 above) and the dismissal of a minister.

D. Investigation of Reports or Complaints of Alleged Violations of Principles

When a report or complaint of alleged violations by a minister is received, the President and a representative appointed by the President shall make an investigation, having in mind that it is his responsibility to safeguard the church, the minister and the Fellowship. This shall be done to determine the source of the report or complaint. The persons involved may be interviewed in order to ascertain the facts in the case and the reasons underlying the reports or complaints, after which the accused minister may be interviewed.

E. Preparation of Filing of Charges

If, after due investigation, it is determined that charges should be laid, proper charges shall be prepared and filed. If no one appears to sign the charges, members of the Board making the investigation may prefer charges based on the evidence in their possession. The person against whom charges have been filed shall be informed in writing by registered letter of the charges made.

F. Board Hearing and Discipline

In the event the charges cannot be dealt with privately to the satisfaction of all concerned, the President shall arrange for a hearing by the Board for the accused minister. The minister shall be requested to appear at the hearing in the hope the matter can be resolved. The minister shall be notified of the specific charge or charges by registered letter at least ten (10) days before being called to appear before the Board.

The said minister may be suspended immediately from his ministerial activities upon his receipt of the registered letter notifying him of the charges, and provision for a pulpit supply shall be made by the president or its representative. If the Board determines that guilt has been established, discipline shall be administered prayerfully and in the fear of God, in accordance with the Scriptures, and as set forth in the General Constitution and by-laws of this ecclesiastical body.

G. Credentials Terminations

A minister who has been found guilty of violating or who has confessed in writing to having violated any of the principles set forth in Sections 11.06 and 11.07 of these by-laws shall be subject to disciplinary action by the Board. Said discipline shall be administered in brotherly love and kindness in an effort to lead the offending minister through a program of rehabilitation. The Board shall weigh decisions on the basis of the offence itself. In the event rehabilitation is not feasible, the minister shall have his credentials withdrawn.

H. Right to Appeal

An appeal from the decision of the Board may be made in the following manner: the credential holder shall make such a request in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation. This must be within thirty (30) days of receiving the verdict from the Board.

I. Rehabilitation

When it has been determined, either by a written confession of the minister involved or by deliberation of the Board that there is a cause for disciplinary action as a result of a violation of principles as set forth in Sections 11.06 and 11.07 of the by-laws, it shall then be the responsibility of the Board to determine whether or not the offence warrants suspension or withdrawal of credentials.

The attitude of the offending minister toward the discipline, the manner and thoroughness of his repentance, the desire he manifests to cooperate, and the possibility of success of his rehabilitation should be taken into consideration by the Board in arriving at their decision. Recognizing that the underlying principle involved in discipline is redemptive, and that man's conscience frequently brings him to judgment and confession, and that justice can sometimes best be served with mercy; therefore the following provisions for rehabilitation shall apply:

1. Basis: For those found to have violated any of the principles in Sections 11.06 and 11.07 of these by-laws, the Board shall determine the period of rehabilitation.
2. Period of time: The period of rehabilitation shall be not less than one (1) year except when the violation involved misconduct defined in Section 11.06(b) in which case in shall be for not less than two (2) years.
3. Procedure and requirements: The following procedure shall be used by the Board in determining the specific requirements leading to rehabilitation for the individual minister:
 - a. Suspension: The Minister shall be considered to be under suspension during the entire period of rehabilitation, and his credentials shall be held in the general office. The extent to which he may be permitted to minister, if any, shall be determined by the Board. Certain offences may not require complete cessation of ministerial activities, although some restrictions or limitations may be warranted;
 - b. Completion of rehabilitation: When the rehabilitation period is satisfactorily completed, the minister shall be considered to be in good standing and his credentials restored upon application.

J. Restoration of Credentials

Persons who for moral or doctrinal reasons have had their credentials withdrawn by the Board and are seeking reinstatement, shall make appeal in writing to the Board at least sixty (60) days before a regular meeting of that body.

The Secretary shall obtain the necessary current information relative to the person applying for reinstatement.

Persons applying for reinstatement may at the discretion of the Board be requested to appear in person.

The decision of the Board shall be final and binding.

Records relating to all suspensions and withdrawals of credentials by Board action shall be kept in the Board office files.

Restoration of credentials if granted shall be temporary for one (1) year and reviewed after that period.

11.08 Minister and Church Relationship

Where a pastor has claim for personal funds against church property, such claim to be valid must have the approval of the congregation or Board in writing.

A pastor shall not hold title to church property.

A pastor or pastor's wife shall not act as Treasurer for a congregation duly set in order. The only exception is where a pastor is temporarily authorized by the Board, and in that case he shall give an account to the Board.

Affiliated churches must be pastored by those who hold their credentials with the Corporation.

11.09 Ceremonies and Ordinances

Ministers holding credentials with The Canadian Assemblies of God (formerly The Italian Pentecostal Church of Canada) are permitted to conduct the various ceremonies, ordinances, and sacraments in accordance with the direction of the Corporation and the laws of their province.

Ordained ministers are permitted to solemnize marriages if they are registered with the government. EXCEPTIONS: Those who hold a Licensed Minister's Certificate may, under special circumstances, be granted the right to solemnize marriage according to the Provincial Marriage Act, provided that they satisfy the following conditions:

1. They must obtain authorization from the Board;
2. They must be in charge of a congregation;
3. They must be registered with the appropriate provincial or territorial government.

Dedication of children, water baptism, and Communion Service: These services may be conducted by the Credential Holder according to the custom and practices of the Corporation, and in accordance with the laws of the Province.

Burial of the dead: One need not be an ordained minister to conduct a funeral and committal service in most Provinces.

11.10 The Minister of Non-CAOG Churches or Other Organizations

To pastor a non-Canadian Assemblies of God church with only remote affiliation possibilities a Credential Holder shall surrender his credentials to the Corporation. If he should desire to return, he may have the privilege of applying for reinstatement.

To pastor an independent Pentecostal Church, the Credential Holder must have Board approval and be under their jurisdiction. He may have permission to pastor such church for a period of not more than two (2) years and must use his influence to attempt to secure the affiliation of the church with the Corporation. Upon a request made in writing to the Board, consideration may be given to extend the two (2) year period.

To become involved with any other Christian organization not directly sponsored by the Corporation, the Credential Holder may retain his credentials if his association and all relevant factors have been processed and approved by the Board.

Such person would be considered as having Associate status, and would not have General Conference privileges, but could avail himself of the other benefits that are open to all Credential Holders. He would be subject to the standards and discipline of the Corporation.

11. 11 The Official Ministerial List

A list of all Credential Holders shall be issued every two (2) years.

This list is issued to the use of the Corporation's Credential Holders. Giving the list to outsiders is strictly forbidden. Exceptions are to be made at the discretion of the Board.

The published Official Directory shall include the following classifications: Active, Associate, and Superannuated.

Additions, deletions and changes in Ministerial Status shall be published at the discretion of the Board.

SECTION 12 - LOCAL ASSEMBLIES

12.01 Local Assemblies

Individual congregations, which are affiliated with the Corporation, shall be called local assemblies.

All true believers associating themselves in local bodies and assemblies, and accepting their full personal share of responsibility for the maintenance of Scriptural order in the local body, shall have a standard for membership which may be determined by the local assembly itself, subject to the rules and regulations of the General Conference in force from time to time and shall be "set in order" as an Assembly by the Board.

A local church shall not be set in order as a sovereign assembly unless it shall have at least twenty-five (25) bona fide members from which at least three (3) Scripturally qualified persons can be selected for church office. Should the church at any time fall below these minimums it shall temporarily surrender its sovereignty to the Board who shall take such steps as are necessary as to restore the minimum levels of sovereignty.

In order to maintain standards of righteousness in the Church only those who are known to be living consistent and overcoming lives may be considered eligible for Church offices. Where there are an insufficient number in a local group who meet the Scriptural qualifications to fill all the offices, it is recommended that such offices be left vacant rather than fill them with unqualified men (or persons).

Each self-supporting local assembly shall have the right of self-government in Jesus Christ, its Living Head, subject to the rules and regulations of the Corporation from time to time in force.

It shall have the right to administer discipline to its members according to the Scriptures and its rules and regulations.

Where a local church has not been incorporated, the affairs of such local assembly as pertaining to the holding of property shall be managed by a Board of Trustees consisting of not less than three (3) members of the said local congregation. Where a Board of Trustees has not been elected, the property shall be held and administered by such officers or officer as the said congregation shall elect from time to time; provided however, that lands purchased or acquired by local assemblies, may be conveyed to the Corporation and held by the Corporation in trust, for such local assemblies, on such terms and conditions may be agreed upon from time to time.

Each local assembly shall recognize that the General Conference has the right to approve Scriptural doctrine and conduct and to disapprove of unscriptural doctrine or conduct. The said General Conference may by resolution, cancel and terminate forthwith the affiliation of local assemblies with the Corporation in the event of the failure of such local assemblies to comply with the Constitution, rules and regulations of the Corporation and resolutions of the General Conference duly passed from time to time, or in the event of such local assemblies failing to subscribe to the Tenets of Faith approved by the General Conference from time to time.

When in need of counsel or advice such affiliated local assembly may appeal to the Board or the General Conference.

When there is a vacancy in the Pastorate, the advice and recommendation of the President (General Superintendent) should be sought and he should be kept informed of any radical changes in the local set-up.

Affiliated local assemblies shall interest themselves in Home and Foreign Missionary activities and actively assist and cooperate with the Corporation and its proper officers in the promotion of such works and undertakings.

Any lay delegate appointed by a local assembly affiliated with the Corporation, who is sent as a delegate to the Annual General Meeting (General Conference), shall be recognized as representing for the time being the said local assembly and shall be entitled to vote at all meetings of the Annual General Meeting. The number of such lay delegates shall be determined from time to time by resolution of the Annual General Meeting.

The procedure for affiliation of independent assemblies with the Corporation shall be as follows:

1. The local congregation shall, at a regularly convened meeting pass a resolution adopting the Tenets of Faith approved by an Annual General Meeting;
2. The said congregation shall, at a regularly convened meeting pass a resolution authorizing the officers of the local assembly to petition to the Corporation for affiliation;
3. The Board of the Corporation may grant the petition for affiliation and shall forthwith thereafter notify the local congregation of its decision.

Notwithstanding the provisions herein contained, local assemblies established with Home Missions funds of the Corporation shall, until the said local assemblies shall have become self-supporting, be under the supervision of the President (General Superintendent) and acts and undertakings of such local assemblies shall be subject to the approval of the Board.

SECTION 15 - AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES OR BY-LAWS

15.01 Amendment of articles or by-laws

In accordance with s. 197(1) of the Act, a special resolution of the members, passed by a majority of not less than two thirds of the votes cast on that resolution, is required to make any amendment to the articles or the by-laws of the Corporation to

If the Corporation becomes a soliciting corporation or if its annual income exceeds one million dollars, the members must appoint a public accountant whose review shall be an audit engagement.

SECTION 17 - DISPUTE RESOLUTION

17.01 Mediation and Arbitration

In the event that a dispute or controversy among members, directors, officers, committee members or volunteers of the Corporation arising out of or related to the articles or by-laws, or out of any aspect of the operations of the Corporation is not resolved in private meetings between the parties, then without prejudice to or in any other way derogating from the rights of the members, directors, officers, committee members, employees or volunteers of the Corporation as set out in the articles, by-laws or the Act, and as an alternative to such person instituting a law suit or legal action, such dispute or controversy shall be settled by a process of dispute resolution as follows:

1. The dispute or controversy shall first be submitted to a panel of mediators whereby the one party appoints one mediator, the other party (or if applicable the Board of the Corporation) appoints one mediator, and the two mediators so appointed jointly appoint a third mediator. The three mediators will then meet with the parties in question in an attempt to mediate a resolution between the parties.
2. The number of mediators may be reduced from three to one or two upon agreement of the parties.
3. If the parties are not successful in resolving the dispute through mediation, then the parties agree that the dispute shall be settled by arbitration before a single arbitrator, who shall not be any one of the mediators referred to above, in accordance with the provincial or territorial legislation governing domestic arbitrations in force in the province or territory where the registered office of the Corporation is situated or as otherwise agreed upon by the parties to the dispute.
